LIBRARY HUB

Introduction

The Library Hub - <http://library.divinity.edu.au/> provides access to an extensive range of online resources (40+ databases, eJournals and eBooks) and a wealth of other library-related information. It is an online one-stop shop for all things "library", providing links to many useful tools and resources, including academic resources, library special collections, FAQs, and a range of general and subject-based LibGuides. A Google-like search box simultaneously searches multiple online resources and produces a single results list.

When you use the Books & eBooks search on the Library Hub home page you are simultaneously searching the catalogues of most University of Divinity Libraries and eBooks available via the Library Hub. By using the filters on the left you can limit your search to a single library or expand it to include Libraries Worldwide. This search is based on WorldCat, the world's most comprehensive library database, enabling users to identify resources held in library collections around the world.

Access

Library Hub access is available on site at all University of Divinity Libraries. Remote access to licensed content requires a username (email address) and password. These login details are the same as those used to access the University's Paradigm Education Management System (formerly TAMS) and Learning Management System (ARK).

Students: Will automatically receive their login details as part of the enrolment process.

Staff/Members: All other eligible members of the University (including Honorary Researchers and University Scholars) who wish to access the Library Hub need to complete an IT Systems Access Form prior to them being issued with their username and password. The form needs to be approved by their home College. Please forward the completed application electronically to: forms@divinity.edu.au

LEAN LIBRARY

Lean Library is a browser extension that delivers full-text content to you, regardless of where you are linking from. All staff and students are encouraged to download the Lean Library browser extension at <https://divinity.libguides.com/leanlibrary>. Select University of Divinity as your institution.

Lean Library will automatically detect when you are on a website that contains content that the Library Hub subscribes to. Lean Library will also automatically deliver you open access versions (if one is available), when the Library Hub does not provide subscription access.

UNIVERSITY ID CARDS

The same UD ID card can be used at all University of Divinity Libraries. Your card and contact details need to be added to each library's management system. This will generally already be done for you at the primary library associated with your home institution. If you wish to access other library collections, please remember to register at each additional library before you borrow for the first time.

Students: A University ID card will be generated for all enrolled students of the University at the point of admission and may be collected from the student's home College.

Staff/Members: University ID cards for Staff and Member categories will be issued by either the relevant College of the University or the Office of the Vice-Chancellor.

HISTORY OF THE LIBRARY HUB

In 2015 the University of Divinity, through its Library Committee, determined to establish a shared online Library Hub to provide a single point of access to online resources for members of the University. This aimed to create a consistent standard of access for all staff and students, regardless of their home College or associated Libraries, and to reduce costs and increase resources by using a single licence where possible for online resources available to the whole University. The project was funded under the University's Strategic Plan, and after a competitive tender process, the project was established through an agreement between the University of Divinity and Mannix Library.

The Library Hub was subsequently developed by Mannix Library on behalf of all members of the University, and officially launched in February 2016. The original agreement was for three years (concluding on 31 December 2018) and was renewed for a further period of three years, on the recommendation of the University's Library Committee, in October 2018. Since the Library Hub was established, additional resources have been added each year and significant service improvements have been provided to University staff and students. The agreement authorises the Mannix Library Manager to liaise with vendors on behalf of the University and to liaise with libraries associated with the University to maximise the benefits of the Library Hub. Arrangements made under the agreement are reviewed annually, providing an opportunity to note ongoing projects to develop and improve the Library Hub, document targets for the following year and revise the annual budget.
